

We know all about the exciting little chores that family members have to handle while preparing for a wedding. With so much already going on in their minds; planning and arranging for themes, lights, food, carpets, and venues sometimes becomes a bit too tedious. That is where we step in. From deciding a venue to creating the ambiance of your ideal mehndi, baraat and valima, or creating the menu which follows the taste buds of your guests for days.