

Food Only? is a service that perfectly suites your small get together needs. If you are planning a small event and don't want to spoil the fun with tiresome cooking, just book a 'Food Only' with us and we can deliver the food right at your doorstep (terms and conditions apply). Our Food Only service is a much better option than deliveries from restaurants because in addition to being economical, it can be arranged for a greater number of people. So avail our Food Only service and shed off all cooking worries while arranging small dinners or get-togethers.